I can always be seen if I need to be. Always courteous at reception. I feel safe being a patient at Buckden Surgery.

Reception was very helpful and update on progress of our appointment, after a long wait to get through via phone. The service at reception was excellent and very friendly.

Long waiting time to get an appointment. Even for telephone appointment Two plus weeks and very hard to get a doctor to see you face to face anymore. It takes forever to get through on the phone to reception.
